Los Angeles County Code Chapter 8.100 & 8.101 - Retaliation is Illegal

You have the right to:

- File a complaint
- Inform any person of their potential rights
- Assert your rights under this law

Retaliation includes but is not limited to:

- Firing you
- Reduction in your pay
- Discrimination against you
- Threats against you or immediate family members

Note: An employer may take disciplinary actions against an employee for cause; however, there is a presumption of retaliation if an employer is unable to show cause.

Los Angeles County Code Chapter 8.101 - Your Rights are Protected

You Have a Right to File a Complaint

You may file a complaint with the Department of Consumer and Business Affairs' Office of Labor Equity for alleged violations of the Minimum Wage Ordinance. Complaints must be filed within three years after the occurrence of the alleged violation.

You Have a Right to Sue

Any employee, entity, or any other person acting on behalf of the public and whose rights under this law have been violated may bring a civil action in a court of law against an employer who violates the Minimum Wage Ordinance.
